INDIANA COLLECTION
Bicentennial

Governments, Policies and Rights In Indiana

A Hoosier Bicentennial Evaluation Of American Federalism

A CONFERENCE, MARCH 25, 1976

Indiana State University

Whereas, 1976 is the bicentennial year for a system of states and local governments as for the nation, and

Whereas, as in the past, the relationship between and among local, state, and national governments are changing, e.g., revenue sharing, grants, guidelines, standards, criteria, campaign finance reform, and party reform, and

Whereas, with mixed emotions, citizen exhort, applaud, view with alarm, recommend, caution, criticize, and condemn such changes even as they affirm, assert, and fear for rights, and

Whereas, 1976 would seem to be an ideal year to reflect on government; and, in Indiana, on the Indiana version of the American federal system; the Department of Political Science and Indiana State University urge ALL to attend a conference on today's governments, share the public discussion, celebrate 200 years of accomplishments, and confront the issues of 1976.

This program is supported by a grant form the in cooperation with the National Endowment fo University and its Department of Political Sc

Where: Tirey Memorial Union
Indiana State University
Terre Haute, Indiana

When: March 25, 1976

Morning and afternoon plenaries on governmental units.	9:30 - 2:00
Panels on policy areas and political parties.	11:00 - 3:45
Evening address.	8:00
Conference luncheon	12:30
banquet (Reservation required)	6:30

Who: Public officials from state, local, regional, national legislative and executive agencies of government. Experts on revenue sharing, law enforcement, Indiana history, human values, education, agriculture, the environment, and economic development. Political party representatives. Charles S. Hyneman, evening speaker.

Why Come: If you are interested in the ins and outs of Indiana government or care about who wins and who loses, or who gets lost in the shuffle, or if you just want to discuss your concerns with others also concerned, you belong at ISU -- your state university -- on March 25.

Indiana Committee for the Humanities
the Humanities, and by Indiana State ence.

CONFERENCE ON INDIANA GOVERNMENTS, POLICIES AND RIGHTS

Please return this registration form by March 19 to: Indiana State University, Conference Bureau, Alumni Center, Terre Haute, IN 47809

Name . . . . . .

Address. . . . . zip . . . . . .

I plan to attend the conference (no registration fee). . . . .

I would like. . . .luncheon(s) reservations @ $3.50 ea. $. . . . .

I would like. . . .banquet(s) reservations @ $5.00 ea. $. . . . .

(Make check payable to: ISU Conference Fund)

Total amount of check enclosed $. . . . .

Meal tickets may be picked up at registration desk in TMU Lobby on March 25.

Note:
If making reservations for more than one, please write the names on the back.

Inquiries about the conference should be made to Dr. Laurellen Porter, Dr. James McDowell or Dr. Charles Gleason, Dept. of Political Science, Indiana State University.

INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY
Terre Haute, Indiana 47809

1960

Non-Profit Organization
U.S. Postage
PAID
Permit No. 48
Terre Haute, Ind.

HEADLY, JACQUELINE
LAKE COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY
1919 W LINCOLN HIGHWAY
MERRILLVILLE IN 46410